Fine art photographer Cindy Pavlinac focuses on the power of place, exploring sites of ancient wisdom and deep community. She works intuitively to communicate the beauty, mystery, and power of journey. Labyrinths repeatedly appear in her work, both for the metaphor they represent and for their visual geometric grace. Her images have been widely published from Time Magazine to Labyrinths, and she has presented her work from Grace Cathedral to Oxford. She is a founding studio artist at Art Works Downtown, a certified Labyrinth Facilitator, teaches at Dominican University, and mentors enthusiastic individuals in contemplative photography.
